

Is your student athlete dreaming of a college education supported by an athletic scholarship?

Are YOU actively marketing your student athlete to college coaches?

If not . . . the time is NOW!

Waiting only allows others to get their name in front of coaches ahead of your student athlete.

WHO is the most effective marketing tool for your Student Athlete?

- YOU have a personal interest in your student and their future.
- YOU understand the needs of your student better than anyone.
- YOUR student will benefit from your direct involvement.
- YOU can represent your student better than an impersonable outside service can.

2012 Student Athlete Profile Service for $350.00

Includes . . . a personalized professional color profile including a picture that highlights your student's accomplishments in their sport, academics, community service, extracurricular activities, awards and honors during high school. This profile is put into a electronic format to be used as an attachment with e-mails or can be use to print color copies for mailing.

In addition . . . you will receive a special promotion code for discounted prices at College Coaches On-line for all the services they offer. College Coaches On-line is a comprehensive, easy to use up-to-date data base for players and parents to evaluate and contact coaches in any sport at all universities and colleges throughout the U.S.
